"It's All About God"

One thing I always love to quote is a famous saying from our Elder, Bro. Norwood, "It's all about God." If you have ever attended a Friday night prayer service in Chicago or talked with him for more than 10 minutes you can bet money he's probably going to repeat that line. I can hear him even now. LOL! Such a simple statement yet so profound and applicable to everything in life.

As I consider the first commandment, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me" (Exodus 20:3). I realized Bro. Norwood was just paraphrasing God's words. God wants us to remember it's all about God too. Clearly, this was a warning to beware of the other gods. Right? Right! I thought, "Ok God, I won't serve anyone else besides you." So, growing up I knew to stay away from all the other little 'g's. I knew not to entertain gods like the ones I read about in Greek and Roman mythology, or any gods that weren't represented in the bible. That seemed pretty easy actually. I thought, "I got this! Cool."

As I got older, I started realizing there were other little g's lurking. I was able to stay away from the other gods of Christmas, Easter, Sunday worship, and unclean food. However, somehow, I still had other gods. It wasn't all about God. It was--most of the time--about God. But sometimes, it was about me. Sometimes it was about my friends, family, my dating life, my job and career pursuits, my money, and my education. Now, before you start looking at me side-ways, hear me out. I know, nothing is wrong with focusing on any of the above. In the words of Jay-Z, "Can I live?" Of course, you can. I plan on it. However, when the things of this world began to take my focus off of God and His righteousness then that person, place or thing became my little 'g'. My little 'g's may not be your little 'g's. But know that they are out there.

God just wants to make sure he has our full attention...NO DISTRACTIONS. He doesn't want 35% or 50% of our attention. We have to know that Satan is ALL about #distractions. The devil uses people and situations to stir up drama, confusion, discord, tension, lust, envy, which may take us off our path to everlasting life. It's sooo important to recognize this early and make sure you have your mind right to righteously handle the distractions. Sometimes that might mean disconnecting from a person, place, or thing in order to save your life. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. (John 10:10 KJV) Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. (Ephesians 6:13 KJV)

Don't be surprised, there are a lot of gods out here. There are many distractions; even our jobs, relationships, addictions, our own desires and agendas can become our god. Nothing is wrong with succeeding in this world. Let's just make sure we are not serving a little god. Remember, "It's all about God!"

Until we read again... Stay prayed up! ☺

"Before Rosa Parks & Claudette Colvin, there was Irene Morgan"

Submitted by Sis. BJ Israel

Irene Amos Morgan (April 9, 1917 – August 10, 2007), later known as Irene Morgan Kirkaldy, was an African-American woman who was arrested in Middlesex County, Virginia, in 1944 under a state law for segregation, although she was riding an interstate bus that operated under federal law and regulations. She refused to give up her seat in what the driver said was the "white" section.

Morgan consulted with attorneys to appeal her conviction. With the help of William H. Hastie, the former governor of the U.S. Virgin Islands and later a judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and Thurgood Marshall, legal counsel of the NAACP, her case, Irene Morgan v. Commonwealth of Virginia, 328 U.S. 373 (1946), was taken to the United States Supreme Court. In 1946 in a landmark decision, the Court ruled that the Virginia law was unconstitutional, as the Commerce clause protected interstate traffic.

Morgan v. Virginia

Morgan v. Virginia, 328 U.S. 373 (1946), is a major United States Supreme Court case. The case was argued by William H. Hastie, the former governor of the U.S. Virgin Islands and later a judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. Thurgood Marshall was co-counsel and later became a Supreme Court justice.[1]

The action resulted in a landmark ruling in 1946, in which the U.S. Supreme Court ruled 6–1 that Virginia's state law enforcing segregation on interstate buses was illegal.[2][3] Hastie and Marshall used an innovative strategy to brief and argue the case. Instead of relying upon the Equal Protection clause of the 14th Amendment, they argued successfully that segregation on interstate travel violated the Interstate Commerce Clause of the U.S. Constitution.[4]

"If something happens to you which is wrong, the best thing to do is have it corrected in the best way you can," said Irene Morgan. "The best thing for me to do was to go to the Supreme Court."

In 1960, in Boynton v. Virginia, the Supreme Court extended the Morgan ruling to bus terminals used in interstate bus service. African Americans continued to be ejected or arrested when they tried to integrate such facilities, as Southern states refused to obey Morgan v. Virginia. [5]

'The Importance of Life Insurance'

“In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.” Isaiah 38:1

Fortunately, for Hezekiah and his family, he was forewarned of his coming death.

We today are not as fortunate, that's why it's important to have our affairs in order.

“For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.” Ecclesiastes 9:12

Death never happens at an appropriate time, it's always difficult when it arrives.

To help ease the sting of death, it's important to have our Life Insurance Coverage up to date. Funeral arrangements' are costly, and at the time of death, it is a bad time to realize that you don't have the means to bury your loved one. Now you're faced with having to borrow money from family and friends who are in need of cash as you are. They have personal issues at hand, that won't allow them to fit your lost into their budget. Investing in Life Insurance eliminates this dilemma. Be assured of this one thing, as we are born into this world, we must die!

Let's all do ourselves a good deed and invest in a Life Insurance Policy that will cover the cost of a decent burial for us, as well as our dependents. Then when death comes, we can have one less difficult situation on our hands.

Sincerely,

The Bereavement Committee

An addendum by the Editor...

Below are a few Insurance Companies that you can inquire about obtaining Life Insurance, but it is always good to call an Insurance agent to get the best insurance for your needs and affordability.

Globe Life and Accident Insurance Company
(800) 742-6787

<http://www.globelifeinsurance.com/>

Gerber Life Insurance (800) 704-2180

<https://www.gerberlife.com/>

Prudential Life Insurance (877) 232-3619

<https://www.prudential.com/personal/life-insurance>

It is also a good idea to have an advance health care directive and a health care agent who will handle your affairs if you cannot during an illness or accident.

Advance Health Care Directive:

An Advance Health Care Directive, sometimes referred to as a "Living Will", is a written document declaring the type and extent of medical care you desire in the event that you become incapacitated. An Advance Health Care Directive is the best way to make your medical and health care wishes known and to insure that those wishes are followed, including directions regarding the use of life-prolonging equipment and procedures.

Health Care Agent:

A Health Care Agent is someone that you can appoint to act on your behalf to see that your Advance Health Care Directive is made known to your doctors and health care providers, and more importantly, the Health Care Agent is the person who is entrusted to see that your health care instructions are followed. Appointing someone as your Health Care Agent has the same effect as giving them a limited Power of Attorney over your medical affairs (sometimes referred to as a "Durable Health Care Power of Attorney." The term "durable" means that your designated Health Care Agent will have power to act even if you become disabled).

Word of the Month
'MICRO-AGGRESSION'

[mahy-kroh-uh-gresh-uh n]

Noun

1. A subtle but offensive comment or action directed at a person of color or other non-dominant group that is often unintentional or unconsciously reinforces a stereotype: micro-aggressions such as "I don't see you as black."
2. The act of discriminating against a non-dominant group by means of such comments or actions.

Psalms 99:1-4

The LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth be moved. (2) The LORD is great in Zion; and he is high above all the people. (3) Let them praise thy great and terrible name; for it is holy. (4) The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

Praise the name of JESUS!

Why God Made Tears?"

I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears. - Psalms 6:6

God made tears to release the emotional turmoil stirring within. That which the soul cannot bear, the mouth cannot speak only to escape through the eyes that cannot sleep.

Tear drops are rolling down my cheeks consumed
with fear and a fair amount of grief.
Sad am I trying to fight back the tears in my eyes;
emotions running high the result of a broken heart.

An emotional build-up just waiting to escape my eyes.
So deep is the pain I might explode if it stays inside.
A traumatic incident,
heartache, even death - it varies from one human being to the next.
Even grown men cry - no shame in that - they are human after-all.

The body grows limp drained with every tear drop.
The reflection of unfortunate circumstances compounded by those things I've experienced - I've witnessed.

Yet once released there is a peculiar moment of relief,
from the depth of despair to a sense of calm
like at the end of a storm.

God made tears to wash away all our fears - cleanse the pain within providing relief to every fiber of our being.

When that final tear is shed I can finally exhale.
My mind is cleared of debris, that misery that almost imprisoned me.

God dried my tears and set me free so I can move forward - pray and stand once again on my feet.

My tear stained face is explanation enough.
Why God made tears - it's to wash away our pain and fears.

"They that sow in tears shall reap in joy." - Psalms 126:5

The most wonderful Christians in the world that I know once worshipped on Seventy - Fifth Street in Chicago! They now greet everyone in Riverdale, Illinois; Where they now reside: On One Hundred Thirty - Eight Street, on the Eastside! There the Holy Bible is read, line upon line, very well; With precise instructions on how to avoid the fires of hell! The members smile and greet everyone with a genuine holy kiss: Every member is invited to this list!

Wherever one Worship; Wherever one resides; always keep God Almighty right by your side! Everlasting happiness only God can give: It's based on serving him; according to His Will! Daily study the Bible with all your Might: Keep your eyes upon God like the Biblical Israelites!

The Bible reveals what food we should eat: How to remain healthy from our head to our feet! "The Ten Commandments are Essential to save one's soul; As Moses received them; the Bible clearly unfolds! When one reads the Bible from cover to cover, an individual will be surprised at what will be discovered! Each and every day; Almighty God; will positively show you the, His WAY!"
