Lesson 22
Jacob (Israel) Sees Esau Again After Twenty Years
Genesis 33rd Chapter

(Recite- Jacob was now traveling through the land of Edom). (Recite- Jacob saw his brother Esau coming with four hundred men). Jacob was all alone; for he had divided his family for fear that Esau would try to hurt them. If Esau attacked them, others might escape and live. (Recite- Jacob thought that Esau was still angry with him for getting the blessings from their father Isaac). Esau had sold his birthright to Jacob for some food, which meant that those blessings really belonged to Jacob and not Esau. As Jacob came closer to Esau, he bowed himself to the ground as a sign of respect and humility. (Recite- By the time Jacob was very close to Esau, Jacob had bowed to the ground seven times). (Recite- Esau then ran to Jacob and gave him a hug and a kiss on the cheek). Esau was very happy to see Jacob. Esau was no longer angry with Jacob for getting the blessings from their father Isaac. Esau met Jacob's family. (Recite- Jacob gave Esau some cattle as a present). Esau said that he had enough cattle, but Jacob insisted that he take the cattle he offered as a present. Esau then accepted the cattle from Jacob. Jacob later explained to Esau that because his children are young, strangers may one day overdrive them and kill their flock. So, Jacob asked to follow behind Esau slowly because his family can't travel fast. They were to meet at Seir, in the land of Edom. (Recite- Esau then had some of his people help Jacob on his journey). Esau then returned to his home in Seir. (Recite- Jacob journeyed to Succoth and built a house). (Recite- He bought a field of land in the city of Shalem). (Recite- Jacob paid one hundred pieces of money for the land from the children of Hamor).
