Lesson 38
Moses Flees Egypt

Exodus 2: 11-25; Hebrews 11: 24-27; Acts 7: 22-29; Genesis 10: 1, 6, 21; Genesis 15: 12- 21; Exodus 18: 3-4.

(Recite- Moses, now a grown man is now forty years old). Moses was well-educated and learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. (Recite- Moses always knew that he was a Hebrew-Israelite. One day, Moses went out to look upon the burdens of his Israelite brothers. He saw an Egyptian smiting a Hebrew-Israelite. (Recite- To smite someone is to hit them to hurt them). The Hebrews-Israelites comes from Noah's son Shem. The Egyptians comes from Noah's son Ham. After looking around and seeing no one, (Recite- Moses killed the Egyptian that was smiting the Hebrew-Israelite). The next day, two Hebrew-Israelite's were fighting! Seeing them, Moses then asked the one who was in the wrong, 'wherefore smitest thou thy fellow'. The man replied to Moses, 'Who made thee a judge and a prince over us'? Intendest thou to kill me as thou killedst the Egyptian? Upon hearing those words, (Recite- Moses got very scared). (Recite- Moses then knew that everyone knew what he had done)! When the Pharaoh heard what Moses had done, (Recite- the Pharaoh had sought to kill Moses). (Recite- Moses then fled for his life)! (Recite- Moses, now dwelled in the land of Midian). As Moses sat by a well in the land of Midian, (Recite- the seven daughters of Reuel the priest came to give their flock water to drink). Before the women could water their flock, (Recite- the shepherds came and drove them away). Moses stopped the shepherds (Recite- and helped the women give water to their flock). Because Moses helped the women, they were able to get home much sooner than later. (Recite- Now, Reuel has another name which is, Jethro). Reuel asked his daughters how they were able to return home so quickly! (Recite- They told their father that an Egyptian had helped them). It was really Moses, the Hebrew-Israelite that had delivered them out of the hands of the shepherds and drew enough water for them to water their flock. (Recite- Because Moses was dressed in Egyptian clothing, they thought he was an Egyptian)! They also thought that Moses was an Egyptian because, (Recite- Moses' skin color was similar to that of an Egyptian). Remember, the word similar means, (Recite- to look the same but is not). (Recite- They did not know that Moses was a Hebrew-Israelite). Reuel had his daughters call Moses (Recite- to come and eat bread with them). Moses was content to live with Reuel and his family. So, (Recite- Reuel whose name is also Jethro gave Moses his daughter Zipporah to marry)! Moses and Zipporah soon had a son (Recite- and named him Gershom). (Recite- Gershom means to be a stranger in a strange land). Later, (Recite- they had a second son named Eliezer). (Recite- Eliezer means, God said He is my help and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh).

As time passes by, Moses will have lived in the land of Midian for forty years before the Lord calls him to free the Children of Israel. (Recite- The king of Egypt and those that sought to kill Moses had died). Still in slavery, the Children of Israel sighed because of their bondage. As they cried, (Recite- their cries came up before God). Hearing their cries and their groanings, (Recite- God remembered His covenant He had made with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob). God looked upon the Children of Israel and had respect unto them. (Recite- Soon, through Moses, God will free the Children of Israel from Egyptian slavery).
