Lesson 51
The 8th Judgement, The 8th Plague:
Locust

Exodus 10: 1-20; Psalm 78: 3- 6, 12, 43, 46; Psalm 105: 1, 26-27, 34.

1. The Lord told Moses and Aaron to go to the Pharaoh.

2. (Recite)- It was the Lord that hardened the Pharaoh's heart!

3. Why did the Lord harden the Pharaoh's mind?

4. (Recite)- That the Lord may show His signs and is wonders before the Pharaoh!

5. The Lord wanted Moses and Aaron to tell of these signs and wonders in the ears of the sons, and their son's sons, what the Lord hath done in Egypt.
6. Why?

7. (Recite)-That they may know that God is the Lord.

8. So, once again, Moses and Aaron went to the Pharaoh as instructed by the Lord.

9. (Recite)- They told the Pharaoh, thus said the God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before me? 10. Let my people go, that they may serve me!

11. If the Pharaoh continues to refuse to let the Children of Israel go, the Lord will bring locust into the coasts of Egypt tomorrow.

12. (Recite)-There will be so many locust, they will cover the face of the earth. 13. The Egyptians will not be able to see the earth because of the locust.

14. Whatever was not destroyed during the plague of hail, the locust will eat!

15. (Recite)- The locust will eat every tree which grows in the field.
16. (Recite)- The locust shall be in the homes of the Egyptians and their servants.

17. None of the Egyptians has seen anything like this since Egypt became a nation!

18. (Recite)- Moses then turned away from the Pharaoh and went out.

19. The servants of the Pharaoh asked him saying, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? 20. They then asked the Pharaoh, to let the man go; that they may serve their God. 21. Then the servants said to the Pharaoh, knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed. 22. Moses and Aaron were called back to speak with the Pharaoh. 23. The Pharaoh asked Moses and Aaron, who are they that shall go?

24. (Recite)- Moses told the Pharaoh that the old, the young, their sons, their daughters, their flocks and their herds. 25. For they must hold a feast to the Lord.

26. The Pharaoh only agreed to let them take the little ones and no one else.

27. (Recite)- Moses said, not so! Everyone must go! 28. Then, Moses and Aaron were driven from the Pharaoh's presence.

29. As the Lord instructed Moses to stretch out his hand over the land of Egypt,

Locust

Exodus 10: 1-20; Psalm 78: 3- 6, 12, 43, 46; Psalm 105: 1, 26-27, 34.

30. All that day and all night, the Lord brought an east wind. By the morning, the locust were in the land of Egypt.

31. The locust covered the whole earth, and the land was darkened.

32. (Recite)- The locust ate every herb in the land and all the fruit of the trees which were not destroyed by the hail. 33. Every green thing in the trees and the herbs of the land were eaten.

34. In haste, the Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron. 35. The Pharaoh said he has sinned against God and Moses.

36. (Recite)- The Pharaoh asked to be forgiven, this one time.

37. The Pharaoh then asked Moses to intreat the Lord to take away this death only. 38. Moses then left the Pharaoh and intreated the Lord for the locust.

39. (Recite)- Then, the Lord turned a mighty strong west wind that took the locust away. 40. They were cast into the Red Sea.

41. Their remained not one locust in the coasts of Egypt.

42. (Recite)- But the Lord hardened the Pharaoh's heart again and he still would not let the Children of Israel go.
